

Fantasy Castle Art Contest!

“Create a castle from right out of a storybook for this summer's art contest! Castles can be made of materials around the house, outside, or whatever you can think of! Need some help deciding what kind of castle to build? We have books on all types of castles all over the world to get your creative juices flowing. You can even add knights, princesses, dragons, fairies, or anything at all! The only limit is what you can imagine.”

Criteria:

- One entry per person or group
- Art piece should not exceed a 12” x 18” base.
- Castles must contain items that are non-perishable and non-toxic
- Any subject following the theme, must be G-rated
- Upon submission, artist must provide First & Last name, age, phone number and email
- Upon submission, the artist accepts that their art will be shown on the Moline Public Library webpage and various social media.
- Submissions will be accepted at the Moline Public Library Children’s Desk
