

Teentober Contests

Theme: One of Us is Lying

Film | Visual Arts | Writing Contests

WHO CAN ENTER?

Teens (ages 11-19) from the QC area can create a film (including performance art), a piece of writing, or a piece of visual art that showcases their creativity and connects to the 2025 theme: "One of Us is Lying." Teens can work on their own or in teams of up to 5 members, and can submit only one entry per contest category. A Google account is needed to submit entries through the online form.

WHAT ARE THE CONTESTS?

- Film Contest | Videos must be under 5 minutes. Work on your own or with a group of up to 5. Performance of original music, dance, or spoken word may also be entered in this category.
- Visual Art Contest | Art entries must be submitted digitally. Let us know if you need help uploading your work.
- Writing Contest | Writing entries must be 1000 words or less.

WHAT ARE THE RED CARPET AWARDS?

Teen creators and their family and friends are invited to the Teentober Red Carpet Awards at 6pm on November 13, 2025 at the Putnam Museum and Science Center. Teens will walk the red carpet and see their work on the giant screen. Special awards will be given out by the QC Librarians, and participants will receive their own book of the 2025 entries.
